

ROLE:

Design, develop, and maintain applications for all functional disciplines within the scale industry.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES / RESPONSIBILITIES:

Analyze, define, design, and develop new applications and maintain existing applications

Troubleshoot issues and provide direct user support

Scale repair and trouble shooting

TRAVEL REQUIREMENTS:

This position has a travel requirement of up to 50% within Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma with company supplied vehicle. Being on call is a requirement.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Proven proficiency in multiple programming languages

Demonstrated in-depth understanding of relational database architecture and operations; including the ability to create tables, queries, forms, reports, and automated routines

Extensive knowledge and practice in data extraction and manipulation

Proficiency with development tools such as SQL Server and Visual Studio

Ability to work on a team and as an individual contributor

Ability to take assigned tasks to completion with minimal need of additional resources

Excellent interpersonal and communication skills (fluent English required); including the ability to visualize the required application from a less than complete description and propose needed changes or functions

Highly organized individual

Experience working with serial, USB, and network communications

Experience writing application documentation.

Ability to define problems, collect data, establish facts, and draw valid conclusions

Applicant needs to be capable of carrying 50lb weights up and down stairs several times a day

Desire to continually learn

Ability to learn small electronics and repairs

Must have and be able to keep a clean driving record